By Paul Rardin

Here on this newspaper we do a pretty good job of getting names spelled properly. Of course, once in a while we'll slip up and make a boner but ordinarily we have the proper portion of them right.

It isn't easy to get names and initials in their correct places at all times. We always make an earnest effort to spell 'em right. I don't like to see my name in other newspapers when it's spelled "Rainfern," "Rosen," "Rosen," "Rawden," etc. Having a peculiar name, probably, has brought home to me the fact that names should be spelled correctly.

A story taken over the telephone and having a list of names is the bane of a newspaper man. That's the reason here on this end of the line we are always saying "spell it, please."

Thinking of names that sound somewhat alike, and still are different as day from night, brought to my attention a list of names here in the Glades.

Week in and week out we handle a lot of names. And, as I said before, we do a pretty good job of keeping them straight. But, take a look at this list and learn for yourself how tough it is at times to keep 'em straight when a story comes in over the phone.

Right here in the Lake Okechobee section are many easily misunderstood. Here are some:

Lapp - Wapping
Sarr - Herring
Darden - Barden
Cox - Fox
Phillips - Phillips
Vahn - Span
McLure - McClure
Willis - Willis
Caffey - Yaffey
Becker - Becker
Johnson - Johnson
Norton - Norton
Kirkhoff - Kierman
Hooker - Hooker
Thompson - Thompson
Mizell - Rozelle
Jordan - Jordan
Kramer - Krum
Cruza - Cruza
Reeder - Reeder
Hansen - Hansen
Cale - Cale
Statham - Latham
Friend - Friend
Miller - Miller
Goren - Goren
Caret - Barrett
Redner - Redner
Fraser - Fraser
Cress - Cress
Maxwell - Maxwell
Kemp - Kemp
Raimond - Raymond
Friedman - Friedman

That's only a few of them right here in the Glades but it gives you an idea of how easily a mistake could be made.

Hudson's Camp, located near Chaney bay, is enjoying a good patronage this fall, according to G. V. Hudson, former Canal Point grocer, who operates the camp. He has new boats, new cabins, and all the equipment necessary to make fishing and hunting camp attractive to the sportsman. With the opening of the duck hunting season on November 2, Mr. Hudson is expecting a large number of business at his camp. Boats and guides are available for those who desire them.

Do you like good barbecue? I stopped at Sand Cat the other day and Mac E. Williams, butcher in charge of the place, had just finished preparing the side of a fresh pork. To say it was delicious is putting it mildly. It was about the best I've ever tasted. The store is making a specialty of barbecued porks and dozens of other things in the way of food.

Local Barbers Not In Favor Of Plans For Price Raises

Board Proposes 8 A.M. To 5 P.M. Hours; Would Ruin Glades Business

The state barber board operating in Palm Beach county may force the editor of this newspaper to grow a Van Dyke beard and purchase a few yards of yellow hair ribbon to tie onto the pigtail. This may seem to be forthcoming. This may come to, we say, when the prices of haircuts are shoved into a higher bracket - of about 60c - and shaves upped to 40c. On the other hand it is known far and wide that this newspaper editor is for the barber if they want and can get their prices. Here in this office we have been forced to up the price on job printings. We have no control over the paper market and prices have gone skyward to the tune of 44c per cent. This is a price that is being paid ordinary every day warehouse firms.

The barber in West Palm Beach is all for raising the prices but the tonorial artists in the Lake Okechobee region are not so hot about it. Most of the barbers get a hair cut for a shave and 50c for a hair cut. The local boys are being forced to make out for a few more months with these rates.

Local barbers also are against raising the prices. They are open at 8 a.m. and close at 5 p.m. If those rules are invoked in the Lake Okechobee region the local barbers might just as well close their shops and go fishing. In a section like this, where farmers are busy until sundown, the local barbers couldn't earn grits working that schedule.

A delegation of Glades barbers plan to attend a meeting scheduled in West Palm Beach at which time the local layout will be explained in detail. The state board operates under specified rules and regulations and local barbers are hoping that some changes may be found in the rules whereby the Glades area may escape the death-dealing blow held in store for them.

Kentucky Okchs Heavy Trucks

John Dulany, manager of the Pahokee state farmers' market, issued the following announcement: "I am pleased to advise you that it is now possible to obtain permits for the state of Kentucky for overweight trucks transporting perishables. These permits are good for a gross weight of 32,000 lbs. and a length of 35 feet for either trailers or straight trucks. A charge of $2.00 per truck is made and permits are renewable every three months. May I suggest that you contact the managers of the different Florida markets, asking them to forward the permits to you. It is our desire to obtain these special permits so that they may travel the highways without being molested by the grabbers. Those applying for permits should write to Mr. J. L. Donaldson, State Highway Department, Frankfort, Kentucky."

Beans Bring $3.10 On Local Markets During This Week

Growers Expect Heavy Picking To Start Within 10 Days

The lucky few who had green snap beans during the past few weeks collected a nice profit from their farming efforts. During the past few weeks the price of beans has been running as high as $3.10 per hamper. Other offerings brought as high as $2.05 per hamper.

It is the opinion of brokers and warehousemen that heavy picking will start within the next ten days - and then, of course, the price will drop - as it usually does. When shipments are heavy in these days, the price is always low and in all probability the same will be true this fall.

Spirited bidding was prevalent at several places during the week when tenders were offered at auction. At this time there are few beans being shipped from other sections of the country and the Lake crop is commanding a premium of a large number of buyers. Several new factors were introduced by the buyers on local auction platforms this week.

The yield of beans is not so standard this fall, it was pointed out by a couple of growers yesterday. The yield has been reduced by a trip through the fields. It seems that the continued hot weather has had an ill effect on the yield. While fields look like they are heavily laden with beans a closer inspection shows that they are spotty.

Mayor Stresses Vote Importance

Mayor John Dulany was the guest speaker at the luncheon of the Lions club at the Woman's club in Tavares, Fla. He emphasized the necessity of the Pahokee voters going to the polls Tuesday morning to vote on amendments to the city charter. Mayor Dulany explained each of the amendments in detail and gave the city council's reasons for drawing them up. He was introduced by Browning Ross, who had charge of the program.

President Frank Rozelle acknowledged an invitation from the Pahokee P-T-A. for all Lions to be guests with Rotarians on October 21. He urged all Lions to be present at this meeting. Browning Ross asked Lions to participate in the Armistice Day parade in West Palm Beach November 11. Guests were Mrs. L. T. Tupper, Belle Glade, Lynn Elarbee, and Miss Mary Bordeaux.

Rardin To Speak To P-T-A Group

Officials of the Pahokee Parent-Teacher organization believe they have an interesting program scheduled for Monday night, Nov. 3, at the recently completed high school auditorium.

The program for the evening will be the first of a series of lectures by Dr. Rardin. He will show the audience what a well-dressed football player is wearing in 1941. The P-T-A group has issued special invitations to all members of the Rotary club, the Lions club, and the Blue Devils players to be guests of honor for the evening.

Bottleneck!

The Miami Daily News SAYS:

THROTTLING TRAVEL—Maybe you're one of those folks who haven't found it out yet—if you are, look at your map and you will be short out. Road 26 is a short cut to any section of the state. Somewhere you may point out that his map shows him the most direct route between Miami and Jacksonville is still the federal highway, but traffic congestion doesn't show on a map. He has only to negotiate the trip by both routes to discover which is the shortest in travel time. Lots of winter visitors will see Florida from a new angle by taking road 26 and road 26 to Miami from Jacksonville. The state, however, will find one drawback—the bottleneck between Belle Glade and Pahokee. This impediment will only increase travel between Jacksonville and Miami. It impairs communication between the Lake Okechobee section and Miami. A suggestion: The state road department can correct the situation by building a new road and using the old one as a "farm-to-market" road. A note to Lake Okechobee area residents: You can count on the co-operation of Dade counties 100 per cent whenever you want to start action on eliminating this bottleneck.

The Everglades News SAYS:

THANKS, MIAMI! We appreciate your interest in this bottleneck of highway traffic. We have been making an effort to bring this matter to the attention of the proper authorities, but so far, we must admit, we have had little success in getting anything done about it.

Two of Miami's prominent citizens were in these parts a few days ago and witnessed first hand the impediment to traffic between Pahokee and Belle Glade. These prominent boosters of the Magic City rode over the piece of highway in question and found out that something should be done immediately. They are now using the road to reach Miami via Road No. 29 and Road No. 26.

Here's our suggestion to The Miami Daily News: Whisper a word into the ear of Harry Rector, a fellow citizen of yours and a member of the state road department.

With the City of Miami working for a new stretch of road to replace this bottleneck, maybe we can get something done.

Executive Points To Lax Scouting Help By Pahokee Scouts

Cites Canal Point Troop And Scoutmaster As Good Workers

District Scout Executive George P. Freeman, guest speaker at the Pahokee Rotary club yesterday, after commending Scout work in the Gulf Stream Council, said: "But, I can't say so much for the sponsorship of the Pahokee Scouts by this Rotary club." He pointed out that excellent work is being done in the various sections of the five counties in the council and that the work with the little bit that has been done in Pahokee.

He was in his praise for the work of the Canal Point troop, which has been Scoutmaster in Canal Point for several years. He commended the accomplishments of Mr. Cox and his group of boys as something for the Pahokee Rotary club and its sponsored Scout troop to shoot at. He asked the Rotarians to earnestly and sincerely put their hearts in their job of sponsoring the Scout troop and of a live and active scout could be maintained in Pahokee.

Press Meeting November 13, 14, 15

OCALA, Oct. 30. (FNS)—Russell Kay, president of the Florida Press Association, announced today that one of the nation's outstanding newspaper publishers whose papers have consistently won national awards for excellence and content, has consented to speak to Florida newspapermen at the annual convention to be held at Ocala and Silver Springs, November 13, 14, 15.

Wilton E. Hall, president of the Independent Publishing Company, publisher two daily papers at Anderson, S. C. — the Independent Tribune and the Daily Mail. He also owns and operates a radio station.

An able and interesting speaker, Hall will talk to Florida publishers about their problems as an experienced and successful newspaper man.

Another outstanding personality secured for the coming convention program is the nationally known author, artist, and poet, Don Blasing, who recently published his new book of Florida verse, which has entitled "Floridiana." He will appear on the banquet program Friday evening, Nov. 14.

A representative of one of the nation's largest advertising agencies is also scheduled to speak during the 3-day meet, Kay said.

Stewart To Run Against Matthews

MANATEE, Oct. 30. (FNS)—Charles M. Stewart, who announced several weeks ago that he would be a candidate for Florida Railroad Commissioner, stated today that recent press reports listed him as an opponent of Jerry W. Carter in Group One, while on the contrary he is running in Group Two and will oppose Douglas Matthews of Starke, who last week announced that he would be a candidate to succeed himself.

Stewart, or many years a peace officer in Manatee county, has been touring the state on behalf of his candidacy and states that he has very much encouraged, and has found strong support even where not expected.

Navy Day Program At Belle Glade Is Unusual Success

Program Is Broadcast Over West Palm Beach Station WJNO

Judge C. E. Chillingworth delivered the feature address at the Navy Day program held Monday night in the recently finished high school auditorium at Belle Glade. Charles Francis (Sicker) Cox, a former member of Uncle Sam's naval forces, also delivered an interesting talk on life in the navy.

At 8:15 the program was put on the air over WJNO and several Belle Glade people made short talks in which they stressed importance of service in the navy.

Mr. Cox acted as master of ceremonies for the broadcast and in his usual inimitable manner did a swell job.

Following the broadcast Mayor Arnold E. Kirchman took charge of the program and introduced nine mothers whose sons are now serving in the navy. These ladies had seats of honor on the platform with the speakers.

The Pahokee high school band, under the direction of Robert Lampl, furnished music for the evening's program and broadcast.

Speakers of the evening presented by Mayor Kirchman and Mr. Cox included Circuit Judge C. E. Chillingworth, Clifford B. Savage, Dr. William J. Buck, Thomas Creech who is home from the navy on leave, Dr. J. R. Neller, Mayor John Dulany of Pahokee, Guy F. Hull, chief carpenter's mate, Navy recruiting officer of Miami, Mr. H. H. Wedgworth, Principal Erwin Johnson of South Bay, Clarence Kidder, and Luther Jones.

Prior to the talks on Navy Day, Scout Executive George P. Freeman conferred the Eagle badge on the Junior choir; Sermon, "The Shepherd Psalm"; Holy Communion by candle light.

FORWARD WITH BOOKS

Book Week: Nov. 2-8

What is book week? Book week, which will be celebrated this year November 2-8, was organized 23 years ago to dramatize and intensify national interest in children's reading. To Franklin Matthews, Chief Scout Librarian, goes the credit of championing the idea of book week.

What are the purposes of book week?

1. To encourage in boys and girls the love of books and reading.
2. To increase public appreciation of good books for children.
3. To increase knowledge of and support for public book facilities.
4. To encourage home ownership of books, and companionship through books.

What is the 1941 book week theme?

"Forward With Books" is the current year's book week slogan. Such a theme challenges all to think of the place of books in living — books for a world in turmoil or a world at peace.

Both Pahokee school libraries will observe book week with attractive posters, displays, and class exhibits. The annual book week polls will be held Thursday, Friday will be Penny Serenade day. A day of "How Books Are Made" will be shown at the assembly program on Friday. Parents and friends are invited to visit our libraries at any time, but especially during book week.

Parole Board To Study Plans

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 30.—Fla.'s new three member probation and parole commission will go to Montgomery Wednesday to study operation of the Alabama parole commission in interviewing inmates of Kilby prison.

Chairman Francis R. Bridges and Commissioners Joseph Cherry and James T. Voegele will leave here Tuesday, returning Thursday.

"The Alabama commission has much the same set-up that we have in Florida," Bridges said, "and we want about its methods of interviewing prisoners."

Bridges announced written examinations will be conducted here Nov. 3 for a director of probation and parole who will receive $3,600 annually. Fifteen men have applied.

Examinations will be conducted Nov. 8 in Jacksonville, Tampa, Miami, and Tallahassee for eight supervisors who will receive $2,200 annually. Jobs as supervisors are open to both men and women.

Power Company Buys Hudson Bldg.

Announcement was made yesterday by P. P. deMoya, Glades manager of the Florida Power and Light company, that the company had purchased the J. F. Hudson warehouse at the railroad crossing in Pahokee. Mr. deMoya said the company planned to use the building for a material storehouse. For many years Mr. Hudson had distributed fertilizer from the warehouse.

"All Out" Effort For Red Cross

WEST PALM BEACH, Oct. 30.—The approaching Red Cross roll call must be an "all out" effort, delegates attending a regional conference here Monday were told by Ramona S. Eaton, director of the Eastern division drive.

Red Cross workers from an area bounded by Key West, Fort Myers, Orlando, and Vero Beach attended the meeting. The largest delegation came from Dade county, with 22 persons. Broward county sent 10; St. Johns, 4; Indian River, 4; Hendry, 4; Okeechobee, 3; Orange, 2 each from Hillsborough, Grant, Marion, Lee and Collier, and one from Glades. Twenty nine workers attended from Palm Beach county.

Eaton pointed out that the junior and senior roll calls are being joined for the first time and that every effort must be made to collect sufficient funds to care for men in the armed forces.

W. W. Jefferson, Eastern area assistant manager, pointed out the work being done for service men in camps.

J. Field Wardlaw, Palm Beach county chairman, said that the morning session at the Norton Art Gallery, and E. G. Thatcher, chair-man of the Indian River chapter, presided at the afternoon session at the George Washington hotel.

name as that made to the organizers of the campaign.

One of the most urgent needs in this area is a state highway past the state market. The highway from the Pahokee and Canal Point road was surfaced through the efforts of the county and state road department. This road has gone to pieces and a few truckloads of vegetables rolling over it will render it almost impassable. Every citizen in the community should be interested in a new road to the state market since every citizen in the community will directly or indirectly benefit from a successful market.

Sturchio Hearing On November 10

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 30.—Florida's board of education Tuesday set Nov. 10 for public hearing on the proposed removal of Frank Sturchio as headmaster at West Palm Beach high school on the grounds he was an alien.

Cancellation of teaching certificate was demanded by a group of West Palm Beach citizens and by the musicians' union there. Both groups pointed out that Florida law prohibits employment of an alien in the state school system.

Ample Supply Of Foodstuff

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 30.—An ample supply of foodstuff in Florida at present was reported Tuesday by the state defense council.

The council approved plans of its Food division to encourage a program of regular purchase of foods, instead of hoarding. The division said its information showed that retail prices of food have increased less than wholesale prices.

Prices for increased farm production of foods will be discussed at a meeting in Lakeland Nov. 18. This is part of a state wide program to step up agricultural production to 25 to 25 per cent.

The council authorized establishment of a series of public food control with officers deputized by county sheriffs to take active part in patrol duty.

Clean Rest Rooms Are Mandatory

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 30.—A vigorous campaign to require clean restrooms and better sanitary facilities in filling stations has been started by the state board of health at the direction of Gov. Spessard L. Holland.

Inspectors will check filling stations periodically to guarantee traveler healthful drinking water with pure, cool, or fountain, sanitary restrooms, and clean, sanitary restrooms.

David B. Lee, chief sanitary engineer, notified all inspectors of the new campaign, and called upon gasoline companies for co-operation.

Florida, as a tourist state, has a grave responsibility to its winter visitors, as well as to the resident population," Lee said.

RUSSELL O. MORROW
SPOKE TO ELKS GROUP

Hon. Russell O. Morrow, state representative, was the guest speaker Sunday at a special National Defense day program held by the Elks lodge in their spacious clubhouse in Pahokee. ## CCC Youths May Visit Pacific Coast

For the first time in approximately one year, Palm Beach county youths are to have the chance to enroll in the CCC and see service in the camps of the Pacific coast.

Announcement to this effect was made today by Mr. G. A. Chalker, chairman, District No. 10 welfare board, who explained that young men who would be available for western service should advise the nearest welfare office at once so that they may be reached when the special enrollment is authorized.

Only the usual requirements will be considered in determining eligibility for western service. Mr. Chalker stated. Previous service on the Pacific coast will not render an applicant ineligible for re-enrollment, provided three months have elapsed since the date of his last honorable discharge and the total of his previous service is not in excess of 18 months. Enrollment will be for six months.

Pahokee Chapter Is Outstanding At Kansas City Meet

American Farmer Degree Is Won By Former Pahokee High Boy

Claude Jones, Pahokee high school student and president of the state organization of Future Farmers of America, and John Harrington, Jr., have returned from Kansas City where they attended the annual convention of FFA clubs.

The boys brought back with them a coveted prize in the form of a check for $15 from the convention for placing third in the United States for chapter accomplishments during the year. The check was presented to the district of Harper-Kendall, vocational agricultural teacher.

More than 3,500 Future Farmers in Florida high schools are proud of the record made by their representatives at the national convention and contests last week at Kansas City.

Leabert Smith of Leona high school in Holmes county won first place in the national livestock holders contest in the market beef cattle division. W. S. Crews of Sumner high school in Baker county was rated sixth best judge in the national beef cattle judging contest. The Pahokee chapter won third classification in the nation for chapter accomplishments during the past year.

One of the exhibits won a gold emblem award which placed it among the top ranking exhibits. The state was recognized with a bronze class award as a result of accomplishments of its many chapters.

One of all perhaps, was award of the coveted American Degree to three Florida representatives: 1938, Elvin Dugan, DeLand; 1939, Elvin Dugan, DeLand; 1940, Elvin Dugan, DeLand. The delegation was accompanied by three agriculture teachers and A. W. Tamm, associate professor of agricultural education, University of Florida, and J. L. ## Duck Season To Open November 2

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 30.—Thousands of duck hunters in Florida will greet the dawn of November 2 in bluffs as the 1941 migratory waterfowl season opens for a 60-day period.

"Duck hunting regulations this year are about the same as those of last year as announced by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service," I. N. Kennedy, executive secretary of the State Commission of Game and Fresh Water Fish, said today. "Only minor changes have been made with daily bag limits continuing at 10 on ducks, and possession limited to two days' bag."

Redheads and buffheads have exceptions to the general bag limit with a limit of three a day, or three of these two species together. Canvasbacks and rusty ducks have been restored to the list as species with the 10-and-20 bag and possession limits.

The season on jackknipe (Wilson's snipe) has been closed this year, due to a serious decrease in the number of these birds. While in a few states the federal regulation this year permit the taking of wood ducks, in Florida both federal and state laws continue to protect the wood duck or summer duck.

Kennedy pointed out that the prohibition against using repeating or automatic shotguns of more than three-shell capacity in a state law was a federal regulation.

The duck hunter's day begins at sunrise and ends at 4 p.m. In addition to a state hunting license, the duck hunter must have a federal migratory bird hunting stamp validated by his signature. These stamps, commonly called duck stamps, may be obtained at post offices for one dollar.

The dove season, also controlled by federal regulation, will not open until December 1 this year.

Don McLeod of Apalachicola has penned the following alert to the wild duck. We like it and thought you might.

To A Wild Duck: You hurtle down the blustering wind with many a change of pace; I am at where I think you are, and blaze through empty space. My silly wooden duck decoys you scan with proud vigilance, then just to shope your wings and you circle back again this time I can only plot your course and draw my head again; you who shall reach the spot marked "X" I plan to shoot you dead. But suddenly you pull on brakes and claw the atmosphere, then wheel away across the marsh, and go. I know not where; I use my ammunition—up and lay my weapon by; I stretch my limbs and light my pipe, and look up in the sky, to find you circling there again, you daring little imp! And now you pass me by as close you look, up like a blimp. Oh well, we've played this game before, and will some other time. I'm full of admiration for your impudence and sublimity. The only shots that I regret are those that find their mark, and lying there crumpled at my feet, to lie there, cold and stark.

Blue Devils Tie Vero Beach Squad

Coch Hobson's crippled Blue Devils were kept busy keeping the Vero Beach eleven from crossing the goal line and therefore failed to make a score themselves on the Indians' home reservation last Friday night. The local team lacked the backfield power of Stone and Collins, regular players, who were out with injuries, and the remodeled backfield of Weeks, Blech, Stokes and Uwein couldn't get rolling together.

The Vero Beach squad fought hard all the way, determined to keep the score low or to win from the weak Blue Devil crew. A scoreless tie was the result of the clash between these two Indian River conference teams.

The stretch of road between Pahokee and Belle Glade is a disgrace to the highway department. Something should be done about it.

EXPERIENCE SPEAKS AGAIN

Dear Friends:

Cool season opens at sun-up Sunday, November 2, and not one minute before. So, if you are planning to take part in this sport take my advice and get your hunting license, duck stamp, and then wait for the arrival of Old Sol to show himself in the east, for it is much more pleasant to explain to one of your fellow apartmenters the reason for that miss than to explain to the judge why you should be excused for violating the law as laid down by the court.

Wishing you all the best of luck, I am
Yours very truly,
